THE CABINET.

Hay and Long Are Near Their

Striellen Chief. All of the members of the cabinet are now here except Secretaries Hay and Long. The former telegraphed Sunday that he would start from Newberry Monday, probably in time to be here Monday night. Secretary Long also telegraphed that he was cuming, but did not specify the time. The cabinet officers Ired it to be their duty to be here in the crisis to meet any emergency. They are holding no formal meetings, although the are seems matters of public business which they saidly discuss informally, and the possible contingencies should the president grow worse are also thoroughly canvassed. They do not believe that there is the most resunte possibility that Vice President Roosevoit will be called upon to exercise the functions of chief magistrate under the disability clause of the constitution while the president flyes.

Vice President Roosevoit would not hear of such a course. Still it the event of grave interpational complications, an emergency might occur, and the question has arisen in their minds as to who should proceaum the disability provided for by the constitution.

The members of the cabinet are making their hemiquartiers at the Buffulo clot, and there their interchanges take place. They are to remain here for the present and the plans of departure are indefinite and not even thought of while the present cheet is not entirely out of danger. If he should pass the danger point, however, they will return at once to Washington.

THE PRESIDENT'S WIFE.

Her Fortitude Is Regarded as

Mrs. McKinley continues to bear upbravely, and her fortitude under the circimistances is regarded as remarkable.
One of her dearest and closest fricada.
Mrs. Rand, of Washington, has arrived here and will probably remain with her during this trying period.

The members of the cabinet are doing recrything in their power to prevent the sensational exploitation of Capigors, hecause he undoubtedly craves notoriety and because his fellow anarchists throughout the country love it. They do not desire to niace any stone in the path of the authorities who are laboring to unravel the plot, if any plot existed, and all he machinery of the government secret service will be used to aid the state authorities in the presention of their investigation. But by direct request of Secretary Root on behalf of his colleagues, the district atformey and the police will not permit the prisoner to be seen or interviewed, nor will they discuss the methods of the results of their efforts to discover the originators of the plot all that has leaked out from the Jail shows that the prisoner is vain and boastful of his crime, and would, if given a copportunity, fill the newspapers with redumas of his vaporings.

Abner McKinley, brother of the prostdent, reached here at 17.29 a. m. He was admitted to the house at once.
